Course Overview

Emmanuel College boasts amazing modern facilities on a secure self-contained campus, including a state-of-the-art sports & recreation center, large classrooms, grassed common areas, lecture theatres and a well-equipped dining room. The college is located perfectly in the Fenway area, of Boston, which gives students the perfect opportunity to explore the city. The excursion heavy program takes advantage of the cultural and entertainment sights Boston offers, including the Boston Red Sox stadium. On full day excursions students have the chance to also discover the city of Cambridge which is the home to Harvard University and MIT.

Classic Programme

A full English language programme including 3 half day & 1 full day per week.
2 Dinners per week in Boston.

- Freedom trail
- Harvard Square and University
- Back Bay
- Charlestown & The USS Constitution
- Faneuil Hall
- Revere Beach
- Little Italy
- Boston Harbour

Plus Programme

The PLUS programme includes the Classic Programme visits, plus the following entrances (over 2 weeks):

- Skywalk Observatory
- Whale Watching Cruise

Who is this course suitable for?

International students who wish to have a taste of life in a Boston college campus, and who are motivated to improve their English and experience the energy of Boston. The course offers a mix of English language learning, social opportunities with other international students, and a rich activity and excursion programme with visits in and around of the west coast's, most dynamic city.
