Course Overview

Our boarding school integration programme at Burford School offers students the opportunity to fully immerse themselves in UK boarding school life and culture, and mix with both British and international students. Students taking part in this integration programme can expect to experience a variety of classes across each week in addition to taking part in the school's vibrant social programme.

Who is this course suitable for?

The boarding school integration programme is particularly suitable for students who already have a grasp of English and are looking to improve their fluency and confidence in an authentic UK school environment.
