Course Overview

Students on the Spring or Summer Vacation courses at Cheltenham Ladies' College will experience life in a typical British boarding school, in the beautiful, vibrant town of Cheltenham located in the Cotswolds. Our lessons place emphasis on activating students' existing language skills, while putting a real focus on authentic communication and developing study skills. Lessons are based on a communicative approach, with student confidence at the core of our syllabus and methodology.

Who is this course suitable for?

International students who wish to have a taste of life in a British boarding school, and who are academically driven and ambitious. The course offers a mix of academic enrichment, social opportunities with other international students, and a rich activity and excursion programme with visits around Cheltenham and visits to nearby cities.
